Headquarters, United Nations Command/ Combined Forces Command/United States Forces Korea

The Headquarters, United Nations Command/Combined Forces Command/United States Forces Korea, distinguished itself by exceptionally meritorious achievement from 1 May 2004 to 30 November 2006. During this period, the command enhanced the warfighting and deterrence capabilities of the Republic of Korea-United States Alliance, expanded the participation of the United Nations Command's sixteen Sending States, strengthened military ties between all Coalition Nations, and improved the quality of life for Service members assigned to the Republic of Korea. The command helped maintain stability and security during multiple periods of heightened tensions with North Korea and supported the Republic of Korea. Through aggressive and immediate response, the command also contributed to the War on Terrorism and greatly assisted with worldwide relief and recovery efforts in areas affected by natural disasters. By their exemplary performance of duty, the members of Headquarters, United Nations Command/Combined Forces Command/United States Forces Korea, have brought great credit upon themselves, their Service, and the Department of Defense.

Given under my hand this 15th day of October 2007
