1-4. Responsibilities

Component commanders and the Chief, Joint US Military Assistance Group-Korea, are responsible for providing the provisions of this regulation to the members of their commands.

Chapter 2 Policy and Procedures

2-1. Policy

To ensure that non-military personnel of this command entering the ROK are exempt from ROK laws and regulations concerning the registration and control of aliens, the US and the ROK have agreed, in the SOFA, to the verification of status procedures listed in paragraph 2-2 below. It is the policy of this headquarters to comply with these mutually agreed upon procedures.

2-2. Procedures

These procedures revise previous guidelines established for implementation of the US-ROK SOFA, Article VIII, Paragraph 4 pertaining to appropriate documentation and verification of status. These procedures:

a. Specify the appropriate documentation for Republic of Korea (ROK) authorities to verify the SOFA status of the dependents of members of the United States armed forces, members of the civilian component and their dependents, and invited contractors/technical representatives and their dependents, hereafter called "USFK non-military SOFA status persons".

b. Provide a specific method for ROK authorities to verify the SOFA status of USFK non-military SOFA status persons who enter the ROK in a SOFA status and sojourn in the ROK in a SOFA status.

c. Provide a specific method for ROK authorities to verify the SOFA status of USFK non-military SOFA status persons who establish SOFA status and sojourn in the ROK in a SOFA status after initially entering the ROK in a non-SOFA status.

d. Provide a specific method for ROK authorities to verify the SOFA status of USFK SOFA Status children who are born in the ROK.

e. Provide a specific method for ROK authorities to verify the SOFA status of USFK non-military SOFA Status persons whose SOFA Status has been extended by a tour extension or contract revision.

f. Provide a specific method for ROK authorities to verify SOFA Status Cancellation.

g. Provide specific information on the ROK Immigration Service's imposition of fines and other penalties upon USFK SOFA status persons.

2-3. SOFA Status Verification

a. To ensure that USFK non-military SOFA status persons entering and sojourning in the ROK are exempt from ROK laws and regulations concerning the registration and control of aliens, the US and ROK have agreed that ROK Immigration Service authorities will verify those persons' SOFA status and affix a SOFA Verification Seal in their passports (Appendix A).

b. USFK non-military SOFA status persons obtain SOFA status verification by presenting the appropriate documentation to ROK Immigration Service authorities, or by having a designated agent present the appropriate documentation to ROK Immigration Service authorities.

2-4. Appropriate Documentation

a. Appropriate documentation required for USFK non-military SOFA status persons to present to ROK Immigration Service authorities to verify their SOFA status shall consist of:

(1) A valid passport.

(2) An English language identity card issued by the United States armed forces.

(3) The applicable certification memorandum (named below).

(a) Military Assignment Certification memorandum for dependents of United States Armed Forces Personnel (Appendix B).

(b) Civilian Employment Certification memorandum for members of the civilian component and their dependents (Appendix C).

(c) Invited Contractor and Technical Representative Personnel Data Report, USFK Form 700-19A-R-E, for invited contractors/technical representatives and their dependents (Appendix D).

- Form 700-19 A-R-E must be stamped and signed by USFK/FKAQ.
- See USFK Regulation 700-19 Invited Contractor and Technical Representative Program for information regarding SOFA designation on contracts and invited contractors/technical representatives.

b. The Military Assignment Certification and Civilian Employment Certification memoranda shall contain the following data: Military Sponsor's or Civilian Employee's Name, Rank/Grade, Social Security Number, Unit of Assignment, Date Assigned or Employed, and the Estimated Date of Departure from Korea; and all Family Members' Names, Relationship, Date of Birth (DOB), and Passport Number.

2-5. Use of a Designated Agent to Verify SOFA Status

a. USFK non-military SOFA status persons may use a designated agent to present their appropriate documentation to ROK Immigration Service authorities and so their SOFA status may be verified and a SOFA Verification Seal may be affixed in their passport.

b. A designated agent must present the following to ROK Immigration Service authorities and the following documents:

- (1) The requesting person's valid passport.
- (2) A copy of both front and back of the requesting person's English language identity card (and their sponsor's English language identity card, if appropriate,) issued by the United States armed forces.
- (3) The applicable certification memorandum named below (see Paragraph 2-3b, above):
 - (a) Military Assignment Certification memorandum for dependents of United States armed forces personnel.
 - (b) Civilian Employment Certification memorandum for members of the civilian component and their dependents.
 - (c) Invited Contractor and Technical Representative Personnel Data Report, USFK Form 700-19A-R-E, for invited contractors/technical representatives and their dependents.
 - Form 700-19 A-R-E must be stamped and signed by USFK/FKAQ.

- See USFK Regulation 700-19 Invited Contractor and Technical Representative Program for information regarding SOFA designation on contracts and invited contractors/technical representatives.

(4) A completed ROK Ministry of Justice Application Form (Report Form) dated and signed by the member of the United States armed forces for a requesting military dependent, the member of the civilian component for the requesting civilian member or his dependent, and the invited contractor/technical representative for themselves if they are requesting or their dependent (Appendix E).

2-6. ROK Visa Requirements and the SOFA Status Verification

A ROK-issued visa is required for all USFK non-military SOFA status persons to enter and sojourn in the ROK. An A-3 (SOFA) Visa may be applied for at a ROK Embassy or Consulate outside the ROK prior to entering the ROK, or at a ROK Immigration Service Office in Korea after entering Korea. Obtaining and maintaining a current A-3 (SOFA) Visa is the responsibility of the individual and is a requirement separate from SOFA Status Verification. The ROK Immigration Service will impose penalties (including fines and confinement) against former USFK military and non-military SOFA status persons whose SOFA status has terminated and who do not comply with ROK Immigration Law concerning applying for a change in visa status from an A-3 (SOFA) Visa to another type of visa by presenting appropriate documentation to ROK Immigration Service authorities.

2-7. Methods of SOFA Status Verification

a. USFK Non-military SOFA Status Persons Who Enter the ROK in a SOFA Status.

(1) Within thirty (30) days from their arrival in the ROK, USFK non-military SOFA status persons shall present the documentation stipulated in Paragraph 2-4 to ROK Immigration Service authorities so that their SOFA status may be verified.

(2) ROK Immigration Service authorities shall verify the SOFA status of USFK non-military SOFA status persons upon presentation of the stipulated documentation and shall affix the SOFA Verification Seal in their passport.

(a) The issue date of the Military Assignment Certificate memorandum, the Civilian Employment Certificate memorandum, or the stamped and signed date by USFK/FKAQ on the USFK Form 700-19A-R-E, shall be not more than thirty (30) calendar days old when presented to ROK Immigration Service authorities.

(b) The "SOFA Status Expiration Date: (xxxxxx)" entered in the SOFA Verification Seal will be earliest of the two following dates:

- Passport Expiration Date; or,
- The "Estimated Date of Departure from Korea" stated in the Military Assignment Certificate memorandum for military dependents, the Civilian Employment Certificate memorandum for members of the civilian component and their dependents, and the USFK Form 700-19A-R-E for invited contractors/technical representatives, and their dependents.

(3) The ROK Immigration Service will not charge a fee for verifying the SOFA status and placing the SOFA Verification Seal in the passport of a USFK non-military SOFA status person when that person has entered the ROK in a SOFA status.

b. USFK Non-military SOFA Status Persons Who Enter the ROK in other than a SOFA Status, and who, after entering the ROK, obtain SOFA Status.

(1) Within thirty (30) days after obtaining SOFA status, USFK non-military SOFA status persons who have entered the ROK in other than a SOFA status, and who have then, after entering the ROK, obtained SOFA status in the ROK, shall present the documentation stipulated in Paragraph 2-4, above, to ROK Immigration Service authorities so that their SOFA status may be verified.

(2) ROK Immigration Service authorities shall verify the SOFA status of USFK non-military SOFA status persons upon presentation of the stipulated documentation and shall affix the SOFA Verification Seal (shown at Appendix A) in the passport.

(a) The issue date of the Military Assignment Certificate memorandum, the Civilian Employment Certificate memorandum, or the stamped and signed date by USFK/FKAQ on the USFK Form 700-19A-R-E, shall be not more than thirty (30) calendar days old when presented to ROK Immigration Service authorities.

(b) The "SOFA Status Expiration Date: (xxxxxx)" entered in the SOFA Verification Seal will be earliest of the two following dates:

- Passport Expiration Date; or,
- The "Estimated Date of Departure from Korea" stated in the Military Assignment Certificate memorandum for military dependents, the Civilian Employment Certificate memorandum for members of the civilian component and their dependents, and the USFK Form 700-19A-R-E for invited contractors/technical representatives, and their dependents.

(c) The date recognized as the "verification date" will be:

- The issue date of the Military Assignment Certification memorandum for dependents of United States armed forces personnel.
- The issue date of the Civilian Employment Certification memorandum for members of the civilian component and their dependents.
- The stamped and signed date by USFK/FKAQ on the Invited Contractor and Technical Representative Personnel Data Report, USFK Form 700-19A-R-E, for invited contractors/technical representatives and their dependents.

(3) The ROK Immigration Service will not charge a fee for verifying the SOFA status and placing a SOFA Verification Seal in the passport of a USFK non-military SOFA status person who has entered the ROK in other than a SOFA status, and who has then, after entering the ROK, obtained SOFA status in the ROK.

Note: The ROK Immigration Service will charge a fee of approximately ₩15,000 (KRW) to change the visa status of a USFK non-military SOFA status person who obtains SOFA status after entering Korea from that person's original visa to an A-3 (SOFA) Visa.

c. USFK SOFA Status Children Who are Born in the ROK.

(1) USFK military and non-military SOFA status persons whose child is born in the ROK must have the child's SOFA status verified for the child's sojourn in the ROK.

(2) Parents are responsible for presenting the child's hospital-issued Birth Certificate within thirty (30) calendar days of the birth to ROK Immigration Service authorities, who will initiate action to verify the child's SOFA status.

(3) Once a passport has been received for the child, the parents will present the child's passport to ROK Immigration Service authorities along with the documentation stipulated in Paragraph 2-4 who will complete the verification of the child's SOFA status and affix the SOFA Verification Seal in the passport.

(a) The issue date of the Military Assignment Certificate memorandum, the Civilian Employment Certificate memorandum, or the stamped and signed date by USFK/FKAQ on the USFK Form 700-19A-R-E, shall be not more than thirty (30) calendar days old when presented to ROK immigration authorities.

(b) The Military Assignment Certificate memorandum, the Civilian Employment Certificate memorandum, or the USFK Form 700-19A-R-E will include the Child's Name, Relationship, Date of Birth (DOB), and Passport Number.

(c) The "SOFA Status Expiration Date: (xxxxxx)" entered in the SOFA Verification Seal will be earliest of the two following dates:

- Passport Expiration Date; or,
- The "Estimated Date of Departure from Korea" stated in the Military Assignment Certificate memorandum for military dependents, the Civilian Employment Certificate memorandum for civilian component members' dependents, and the USFK Form 700-19A-R-E for invited contractors/technical representatives' dependents.

(4) The ROK Immigration Service will not charge a fee for verifying the SOFA status and placing a SOFA Verification Seal in the passport of a USFK SOFA status child born in the ROK.

d. USFK Non-military SOFA Status Persons Whose SOFA Status has been Extended by a Tour Extension or Contract Revision.

(1) A tour extension or contract revision requires that the extended SOFA status of USFK non-military SOFA status persons be verified. If the SOFA status of a USFK non-military SOFA status person is extended, that person shall present the appropriate documentation stipulated in paragraph 2-4 to ROK Immigration Service authorities no later than the expiration date on the USFK SOFA Verification Seal currently in their passport, so that their revised SOFA status may be verified and a SOFA Verification Seal showing the new SOFA Status Expiration Date may be affixed in their passport.

(2) Documentation stipulated in Paragraph 2-4 will be submitted to ROK Immigration Service authorities no later than the expiration date on the USFK SOFA verification stamp currently in the passport.

(a) The issue date of the Military Assignment Certificate memorandum, the Civilian Employment Certificate memorandum, or the stamped and signed date by USFK/FKAQ on the USFK Form 700-19A-R-E, shall be not more than thirty (30) calendar days old when presented to ROK immigration authorities.

(b) The “SOFA Status Expiration Date: (xxxxxx)” entered in the SOFA Verification Seal will be earliest of the two following dates:

- Passport Expiration Date; or,
- The “Estimated Date of Departure from Korea” stated in the Military Assignment Certificate memorandum for military dependents, the Civilian Employment Certificate memorandum for members of the civilian component and their dependents, and the USFK Form 700-19A-R-E for invited contractors/technical representatives, and their dependents.

(c) The date recognized as the “verification date” will be:

- The issue date of the Military Assignment Certification memorandum for dependents of United States armed forces personnel.
- The issue date of the Civilian Employment Certification memorandum for members of the civilian component and their dependents.
- The stamped and signed date by USFK/FKAQ on the Invited Contractor and Technical Representative Personnel Data Report, USFK Form 700-19A-R-E, for invited contractors/technical representatives and their dependents.

(3) The ROK Immigration Service will not charge a fee for verifying the SOFA status and placing a SOFA Verification Seal showing a new SOFA Status Expiration Date in the passport of a USFK non-military SOFA status person whose stay has been extended.

2-8. Method of SOFA Status Cancellation

a. If the SOFA status of a USFK non-military SOFA status person who entered the ROK in a SOFA status or obtained SOFA status after entering the ROK is altered so that person’s SOFA status is terminated and the person is no longer entitled to SOFA status, or the person’s SOFA status will be terminated earlier than the original expiration date, the authorities of the United States will take the following actions:

(1) The SOFA Verification Seal in the person’s passport will be changed to reflect the date SOFA status terminated or the earlier SOFA Status Expiration Date (Appendix F). US authorities will line through the date entered in the “SOFA Status Expiration Date: (xxxxxx)” and will enter the date SOFA Status terminated or an earlier SOFA Status Expiration Date, and also enter the name, organization, and ROK civilian telephone number of the authority making the change, and date the change was made.

(2) US authorities will provide ROK Immigration Service authorities notification within seven (7) days of the date a USFK non-military SOFA status person’s SOFA status has been terminated or has been changed to terminate earlier than the original expiration date. The notification will include: Name of the Person, Passport Number, Date of Birth, the Date of Status Change, Previous Status, Date of Expected Departure from the ROK, the Date of SOFA Status Termination or the earlier SOFA Expiration Date, and the current status as to whether the SOFA Verification

Seal has been changed to indicate the date that SOFA Status terminated or the earlier SOFA Status Expiration Date.

b. Any USFK non-military SOFA status person whose SOFA status is terminated or whose SOFA status will be terminated earlier than the original expiration date who desires to remain in the ROK, must apply to the ROK Immigration Service for a change of status of sojourn and receive a visa from ROK Immigration Service authorities or depart the ROK on/or before the SOFA Status termination date or the earlier SOFA Status Expiration Date as shown on the SOFA Verification Seal in the person's passport.

c. In case a member of the United States armed forces who terminates his military service or a USFK non-military SOFA status person does not depart the ROK within 30 days from the date SOFA Status expires or the earlier SOFA Status Expiration Date, that person may be subject to imprisonment of less than three years or a fine of less than ₩20 million (KRW) for the violation of ROK immigration law.

2-9. ROK Immigration Service Imposition of Fines

a. The ROK Immigration Service will not impose a fine against USFK non-military SOFA status persons who enter Korea in a SOFA status who fail to have ROK Immigration Service authorities verify their SOFA status and affix a SOFA Verification Seal showing their SOFA Status Expiration Date in their passports within 30 calendar days of their arrival in the ROK.

b. The ROK Immigration Service will not impose a fine against USFK non-military SOFA status persons who have entered the ROK in other than a SOFA status, and who have then, after entering the ROK, obtained SOFA status in the ROK who fail to have ROK Immigration Service authorities verify their SOFA status and affix a SOFA Verification Seal showing their SOFA Status Expiration Date in their passports within 30 calendar days of their change of status to SOFA status.

c. The ROK Immigration Service will not impose a fine against USFK military and non-military SOFA persons who fail to appear before ROK Immigration Service authorities within 30 calendar days of the birth of a SOFA status child in Korea to have the ROK Immigration Service authorities begin the process to verify the SOFA status of the child and affix a SOFA Verification Seal in the child's passport.

d. The ROK Immigration Service will not impose a fine against USFK non-military SOFA status persons who fail to have ROK Immigration Service authorities verify an extension of their SOFA status and affix a SOFA Verification Seal showing their SOFA Status Expiration Date in their passports prior to the expiration date on the USFK SOFA Verification Seal currently in their passport.

e. The ROK Immigration Service may impose fines against USFK non-military SOFA status persons who do not comply with ROK Immigration Law in the following circumstances:

(1) For USFK non-military SOFA status persons who enter the ROK in a SOFA status using a ROK B-2 (Transient) or C-3 (Short-term; Tourist) Visa and sojourn in the ROK in a SOFA status: Failing to have ROK Immigration Service authorities change the B-2 or C-3 Visa used to enter the ROK to an A-3 (SOFA) Visa prior to the expiration date specified in the C-3 or B-2 Visa in their passports.

(2) For USFK non-military SOFA status persons who establish SOFA status and sojourn in the ROK in a SOFA status after initially entering the ROK in a non-SOFA status: Failing to have

ROK Immigration Service authorities change the visa used to enter and sojourn in the ROK prior to establishing SOFA status to an A-3 (SOFA) Visa within 30 days of their change of status.

Note: The date recognized as the “change of status date” will be:

- The issue date of the Military Assignment Certification memorandum for dependents of United States armed forces personnel.
- The issue date of the Civilian Employment Certification memorandum for members of the civilian component and their dependents.
- The stamped and signed date by USFK/FKAQ on the Invited Contractor and Technical Representative Personnel Data Report, USFK Form 700-19A-R-E, for invited contractors/technical representatives and their dependents.

(3) For USFK SOFA Status children born in the ROK: Failing to have ROK Immigration Service authorities issuing an A-3 (SOFA) Visa within 30 days of their designation of SOFA status.

Note: The date recognized as the “designation of SOFA status date” will be:

- The issue date of the Military Assignment Certification memorandum for dependents of United States armed forces personnel that include the Child’s Name, Relationship, Date of Birth (DOB), and Passport Number.
- The issue date of the Civilian Employment Certification memorandum for members of the civilian component and their dependents that include the Child’s Name, Relationship, Date of Birth (DOB), and Passport Number.
- The stamped and signed date by USFK/FKAQ on the Invited Contractor and Technical Representative Personnel Data Report, USFK Form 700-19A-R-E, for invited contractors/technical representatives and their dependents that includes the Child’s Name, Relationship, Date of Birth (DOB), and Passport Number.

(4) For USFK non-military SOFA status persons whose SOFA Status has been extended by a tour extension or contract revision: Failing to have ROK Immigration Service authorities revise their existing A-3 (SOFA) Visa within 30 days of their designation of status.

Note: The date recognized as the “change of status date” will be:

- The issue date of the Military Assignment Certification memorandum for dependents of United States armed forces personnel.
- The issue date of the Civilian Employment Certification memorandum for members of the civilian component and their dependents.
- The stamped and signed date by USFK/FKAQ on the Invited Contractor and Technical Representative Personnel Data Report, USFK Form 700-19A-R-E, for invited contractors/technical representatives and their dependents.

f. The ROK Immigration Service may impose penalties (including fines and incarceration) against former USFK military and non-military SOFA status persons who do not comply with ROK Immigration Law in the following circumstances:

(1) If they do not desire to remain in the ROK: Failing to depart the ROK within 30 days from the date SOFA status expires.

(2) If they desire to remain in the ROK: Failing to appear before ROK Immigration Service authorities within 45 days from the status change to present appropriate documentation to apply for a change of status of sojourn and change their visa status from an A-3 (SOFA) visa to another type of visa.

(a) In the case of a member of the United States armed forces who terminates his military service and desires to remain in the ROK after the effective date of such change of status, not later than 45 days prior to that effective date that person must make application to the ROK Immigration Service for appropriate permission or visa. The ROK Immigration Service will either issue the requested permission or visa at least 15 days prior to the effective date of the change of status, or furnish the applicant for the visa with a written statement informing him of the decision not to grant the requested permission or visa. The required 45-day prior notification of intent to change status, and the ROK response at least 15 days prior to the effective date of the change in status will be waived in exceptional circumstances as determined by appropriate US and ROK authorities. At the time that a visa is issued to a person specified above, the issuing authority will inform him of his responsibility to obtain and maintain in current status a Residence Certificate, if applicable in the individual's case.

(b) In the case of a USFK non-military SOFA status person whose SOFA status is terminated or whose SOFA status will be terminated earlier than the original expiration date and desires to remain in the ROK after the effective date of such change of status, not later than 45 days prior to that effective date that person must make application to the ROK Immigration Service for appropriate permission or visa. The ROK Immigration Service will either issue the requested permission or visa at least 15 days prior to the effective date of the change of status, or furnish the applicant the visa with a written statement informing him of the decision not to grant the requested permission or visa. The required 45-day prior notification of intent to change status, and the ROK response at least 15 days prior to the effective date of the change in status will be waived in exceptional circumstances as determined by appropriate US and ROK authorities. At the time that a visa is issued to a person specified above, the issuing authority will inform him of his responsibility to obtain and maintain in current status a Residence Certificate, if applicable in the individual's case.

(c) Any USFK non-military SOFA status person whose SOFA status is terminated or whose SOFA status will be terminated earlier than the original expiration date who desires to remain in the ROK, must apply to the ROK Immigration Service for a change of status of sojourn and receive a visa from ROK Immigration Service authorities or depart the ROK within 30 days of the SOFA Status termination date or the new SOFA Status Expiration Date as shown on the SOFA Verification Seal in the person's passport.

(d) In the case a member of the United States armed forces who terminates his military service or a USFK non-military SOFA status person does not depart the ROK within 30 days from the date SOFA Status expires or the new SOFA Status Expiration Date, that person may be subject to imprisonment of less than three years or a fine of less than ₩20 million (KRW) for the violation of ROK immigration law.
