1. Purpose
This regulation provides policy and guidance and outlines responsibilities for United States Forces, Korea (USFK) support of the United Nations Command (UNC) liaison groups in accordance with (IAW) international agreements and instructions of higher headquarters.

2. References
Required and related publications are listed in appendix A.

3. Explanation of Abbreviations And Terms
Abbreviations and terms used in this regulation are explained in the glossary.

4. Responsibilities
   a. The UNC liaison groups will submit a list of their special requirements to the installation coordinator.

   b. The Commander, 19th Expeditionary Sustainment Command, will—

      (1) Provide logistical support to the UNC member countries as required.

      (2) Complete related logistical functions to include requisitioning, issuing, and reimbursement reporting.

      (3) Assist agencies requesting equipment from U.S. Army procurement channels.

      (4) Prepare and submit documentation to complete the reimbursement for support furnished IAW AK Reg 37-16.

      (5) Coordinate the completion of reimbursement with the appropriate UNC liaison group.

      (6) Turn over the title of equipment procured to the UNC country concerned.

   c. The USFK, Assistant Chief of Staff (ACofS), J4, will have overall coordination of logistical support for the UNC member countries in the ROK.

   d. The Commander, 65th Medical Brigade, will—

      (1) Provide medical logistical support to the UNC member countries.

      (2) Assist agencies requesting medical supplies and equipment from the U.S. Army Medical Materiel Agency.

5. Policy
   a. In principle, each UNC member country should furnish its own logistical support. In cases where independent support is not feasible, support may be furnished by the U.S. IAW the terms of references for the Commander in Chief, UNC, as outlined in this regulation.

   b. Personnel travel and transportation services will be provided IAW AR 600-8-105 with EUSA Suppl 1.
c. The UNC Honor Guard will be supported IAW USFK Reg 600-25-1.

d. Liaison group personnel and their authorized dependents are considered equivalent to U.S. counterparts in determining eligibility for nonappropriated fund facilities and ration control privileges, and they will comply with the provisions of AR 215-3, USFK Reg 60-1, and the U.S.-ROK Status of Forces Agreement. AR 40-3 and DOD 1342.13 specify guidelines for medical and educational support.

e. Obligational authority will be established each fiscal year by the USFK, ACofS, Resource Management. This authority will be used to support the Philippines and Thailand UNC member nations only for the cost of temporary duty travel, not to exceed the Air Mobility Command (United States Air Force) rate, permanent change of station (PCS) travel, and/or shipment of household effects as authorized and self-service supply center items. All other UNC member nations will provide their own funds or will reimburse the USFK for travel and self-service supply center expenses. DOD 5100.73 and DOD 7000.14-R, Volume 11A, Chapter 9 provide Department of Defense policy of support.

6. Reimbursement Procedures
Policy and procedural guidance for support provided under government-to-government reimbursement procedures will be as follows:

a. The level of support services will be within normal limits established for U.S. service members engaged in similar mission activities.

b. Equipment, supplies, and services will be provided to UNC Liaison Groups only on a reimbursable basis, except as outlined elsewhere in this regulation.

c. Government-to-government reimbursement financial support may be employed for the cost of PCS transportation, including transportation of dependents or shipment of household effects, as authorized. Reimbursable weight allowances will be the amount authorized by the supported nation.

d. Support given to UNC liaison groups by the U.S. in the form of transportation and shipment of household effects and other special requirements is subject to reimbursement.

e. The USFK activity that will provide the support to UNC will prepare and submit either a USFK Form 209EK-E, or the equivalent MUTUAL LOGISTIC SUPPORT ORDER/RECEIPT, from Annex D of CJCSINST 2120-01A, 27 November 2006, to General Support Branch (GSB) of 175th Financial Management Center (FMC). Then the GSB will prepare and send a DA Form 1857, STATEMENT OF ACCOUNT to the concerned USFK activity. The USFK activity will then prepare a DD Form 1131, CASH COLLECTION VOUCHER and forward the DD Form 1131 and the DD Form 1857, to the UNC. The UNC will then send the DD Form 1131, the DA Form 1857, and the corresponding payment to the 176th Financial Management Company (FMCo). Upon receipt of those forms, the 176th FMCo will process the DD Form 1131, and provide one copy of the completed DD Form 1131 to the UNC.

7. Logistical Support
Logistical support will be provided IAW the following procedures:

a. Routine support does not require individual requests. It will be programmed based on all known factors such as changes in quantity of personnel and equipment.
b. Special equipment or special support (in addition to the routine support authorized) will be provided through a request from the UNC member country to the installation coordinator.

c. Requests for telephone service will be submitted to the installation coordinator.

Section II. Terms

Direct reimbursement. Payment made directly to U.S. Army finance and accounting offices for support provided to its liaison group.

Logistical support. This support may include normal support of personnel (exclusive of pay and allowances), equipment, maintenance, and operating costs of equipment, travel, and transportation deemed necessary for accomplishment of official duties associated with the UNC mission.

Routine support. This support is considered to be equipment, materiel, and services normally required in day-to-day operations and not in excess of what support furnished similar U.S. military units.

Special support. This support is required for other than routine requirements as approved by the Deputy Commander in Chief, UNC. It includes, but is not limited to, use of major items of equipment such as aircraft, sedans, and so forth on a dedicated basis. Special support also includes supplies peculiar to the supported country and services in excess of those provided to similar U.S. units.

UNC member countries. Those countries exclusive of the U.S. and the ROK, having military contingents or organizations accredited to the UNC and stationed in the ROK.
