(2) ROK Personnel will revert to control of their parent unit.

(3) US Personnel will perform security and combat missions to protect the UNC and its commander.

c. UNC Sending State personnel will be released from UNC Honor Guard duties in order to support official functions of their respective parent nation.
Appendix A
US Selection

A-1. Selection Standards for US Service-members
The standards for acceptance into the UNC Honor Guard are set to assure a professional and military appearance while performing ceremonies and access control duties. The general prerequisites for selection into the UNC Honor Guard are as follows:

   a. Cannot possess physically limiting permanent profiles.

   b. At least 70 inches tall, pass the applicant’s parent service’s fitness test, and meet the applicant’s parent service’s height, weight, and fitness requirements.

   c. Must possess a secret clearance or have the ability to possess a secret clearance.

   d. Must continuously maintain the utmost military bearing.

   e. No Company grade or higher Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ) actions.

   f. No alcohol or substance abuse related incidents.

   g. Must have the ability to be clean shaven when required. No shaving profiles.

   h. If applicant wears eyeglasses, they must have and be able to wear contact lenses during ceremonies and duty.

   i. Applicants must have at least one year availability or be willing to submit an AIP, FSTE, and/or reenlist for 1 year.

   j. Assigned personnel must be able to successfully complete the UNC Honor Guard two-week Newman Integration Program.

Major Subordinate Commands (MSC) on the Korean peninsula have the responsibility to fill the UNC Honor Guard in accordance with directives by the USFK and/or Eighth Army Commander. This requirement is managed by respective MSC personnel sections. The selection process has two methods:

   a. Initial Entry onto the Korean Peninsula.

   (1) Selection process begins at 19th Personnel Company, when the UNC Honor Guard First Sergeant (1SG) receives notification from G1 that a Soldier is available to be interviewed at 19th HRC. The 1SG ensures the Soldier meets height and weight and that he does not possess a permanent profile (to include a shaving profile). Due to ceremonial requirements, a Soldier who requires glasses must also be able to wear contact lenses.

   (2) The Soldier will be interviewed by the 1SG or the company recruiter to ensure the Soldier has no past legal issues that would hinder his or her ability to receive a secret clearance. Also discussed in the interview are the mission and duties of the UNC Honor Guard to ensure the Soldier will be an asset to the unit and to gage the Soldier’s interest in joining the unit.
b. MSC Provided Personnel (Service Members Currently in Unit).

(1) Applicant must be willing and able to extend their tour in Korea to ensure one year availability.

(2) Major Subordinate Commands will provide the applicant’s ERB/ ORB to UNC Honor Guard.

(3) Applicant is interviewed by UNC Honor Guard 1SG or recruited IAW paragraph A-2a(2) above.
