

COMMAND CAFÉ

September: National Hispanic Heritage Month

Join us as we continue to enjoy and educate ourselves through a diverse assortment of literature, media, art, film, music and more. The intent of the Command Café is to help further develop an awareness and understanding of diverse and inclusive topics within our unique community.

Each month the Command Café features a new theme or focus that highlights a particular group, topic or perspective, so make sure to check out previous Command Cafes by visiting <https://www.usfk.mil/Strength-in-Diversity/>

WHAT ARE WE...

Latino Americans: The 500 Year Legacy that Shaped a Nation

The first major documentary series for television that chronicles the deep and varied history and experience of Latinos, Latino Americans highlights the history of those who have helped to shape North America over the last 5 centuries. It is a story about immigration, redemption, anguish, celebration, and the gradual development of a new American identity that connects and empowers millions of people today.

Our America: A Hispanic History of the United States

Written by: Felipe Fernandez-Armesto

The United States history is still typically conceived as an offshoot of England, however, this view overlooks the significance of America's Hispanic past. With the profile of the United States increasingly Hispanic, the importance of recovering the Hispanic dimension to our national story has never been greater.
