

COMMAND CAFÉ

August 2021 - World's Indigenous Peoples

Join Leaders as they continue to enjoy a diverse assortment of literature, media, art, film, music and the like. The intent of the Command Café is to continue to develop an in-depth understanding and awareness of cultural diversity, community diversity and how an eclectic spectrum of community members comprises the USFK-UNC-ROK landscape.

Make sure to also check out previous Command Cafés by visiting <https://www.usfk.mil/Strength-in-Diversity/>

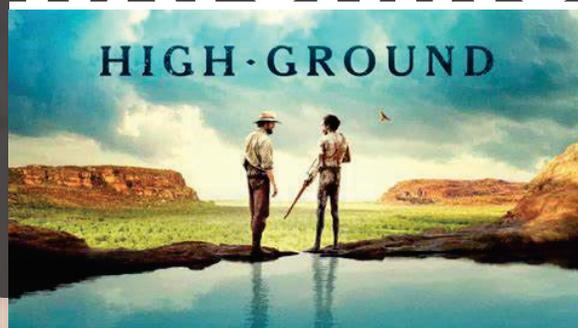

WHAT IS LEADERSHIP...

High Ground (2020)

Directed by Stephen Johnson

In this Australian film, Gutjuk, a young Aboriginal man, teams up with ex-soldier Travis to track down the last of his family, his uncle, Baywara. This film blends stories and languages from Indigenous Nations across the regions of Australia. And although a fictionalized story, director Stephen Johnson says it is inspired by "true history."

WATCHING

LISTENING

MEDIA INDIGENA
WITH RICK HARP

The Anti-Indigenous Handbook Part 1

MEDIA INDIGENA: Episode 226 - Aired Sep. 30, 2020

The Anti-Indigenous Handbook is a collective effort spanning three countries, that shows the concerted, systematic efforts to "undermine [Indigenous] rights to land, resources, language, and culture ... by relying on a variety of doctrines and practices that find root in scientifically false, racist, and legally invalid arguments."

House Made of Dawn

Written By N. Scott Momaday

Written by the first Native American author to win a Pulitzer Prize and credited for starting a wave of Native American literature, this novel is about Abel, a young Native American, who comes home from WWII to find himself caught between two worlds—one of ancient rites and traditions of his people and modern, industrial America.

READING

