

COMMAND CAFÉ

June 2022 - LGBTQ+ Pride Month

Join Leaders as they continue to enjoy a diverse assortment of literature, media, art, film, music and the like. The intent of the Command Café is to continue to develop an in-depth understanding and awareness of cultural diversity, community diversity and how an eclectic spectrum of community members comprises the USFK-UNC-ROK landscape.

WHAT IS LEADERSHIP...

Disclosure

A documentary that looks at transgender depictions on the screen showing how Hollywood reflects and manufactures our deepest anxieties about gender. Leading trans thinkers trace a history that is both dehumanizing, yet also evolving and complex through some of Hollywood's most beloved moments on the screen. What emerges is a fascinating interplay between trans representation on screen, society's beliefs and the reality of trans lives.

Aristotle and Dante Discover the Secrets of the Universe

Written By: Benjamin Alire Sáenz

Aristotle is an angry teen. Dante is a know-it-all who has an unusual way of looking at the world. When the two meet, they seem to have nothing in common. But as the loners start spending time together, they discover that they share a special friendship that changes the lives and lasts a lifetime. And it is through this friendship that Ari and Dante will learn the most important truths about themselves.
